

SCRIPTURE MEMORY — FELLOWSHIP —

May 2017 Newsletter

“Thanks be to God for His indescribable gift... He who did not spare His own Son, but delivered Him up for us all, how shall He not with Him also freely give us all things?” (2 Cor. 9:15; Rom 8:32)

Enrollment Report

We thank God for nearly 600 sign-ups for the Sermon on the Mount/Ten Commandments memorization groups. We trust that God’s Word will do its work. “Sanctify them by your truth. Your word is truth” (John 17:17). We’re getting excited about the coming Memorize Jonah program, launching August 1.

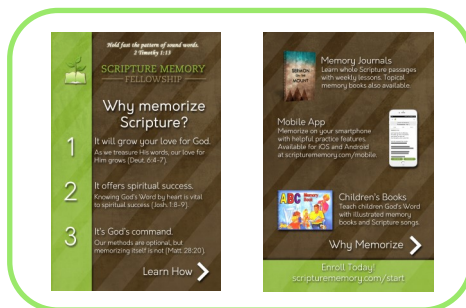

Testimony

Wanda and her husband came to our Dallas Scriptorium event and memorized 2 Timothy with us. Not many weeks after, her husband fell from a ladder fracturing his skull and losing hearing in one ear. Wanda writes, “Even in the midst of this trial, imagine my joy as my husband and I lay side by side in his narrow hospital bed and quote our Scripture memory work to one another!! Our God is really good, isn't He!!!!”

Register for Camp—Due May 15th

The deadline for regular camp registration is less than two weeks away! If your young people have memorized in one of our programs, they can earn a scholarship! Check scripturememory.com/camps for more details.

New Bulletin Insert

We have a new bulletin insert that outlines the “Why” and the “How” of memorizing Scripture and points people to our programs. Would you pray about getting a supply of these and putting them in your church’s bulletin? If there’s an opportunity to come present the ministry of Scripture Memory in your church, we would love to do that.

Response at the Fairs

God has blessed our time at Home School Fairs in the last few weeks. Dozens of families have responded to the opportunity to treasure God's Word. Dakota and Laura Lynch had a wonderful response at the Teach Them Diligently Convention in Nashville, and our daughter Faith Woychuk and I were helped greatly by Chad Boss of Hamilton, MI at the Great Home School Convention in Cincinnati. Weekend after next, we'll attend the Texas Home School Coalition fair in Arlington.

Board Meeting Update

Our board of directors met April 7-8, with nine board members and other guests. As usual, these brothers and sisters encouraged us mightily, with Pastor Robert Crummie, president of Carver Bible College in Atlanta, giving us an important message on 2 Timothy 4:5 and Jon Klaus, my brother-in-law, giving a great talk on strategic planning and goal-setting.

Ministry Update

Thank you for your prayers and your giving for this ministry. A $10,000 deficit has been erased. God has provided... again! Please keep praying.

Much grace,

Jim Woychuk
